

What Should We DO?

1. Describe what should be done in each of the situations.
2. Discuss why you made that decision.

Some girls at school are being really mean. They text you constantly and threaten to beat you up. What should you do?

Becky was talking to a 10-year-old boy online. They both like to skateboard. He asked her to meet him at the park so they could skateboard together. What should she do?

Ashley's mom told her that no one should touch her private places without a good reason. Ashley isn't sure where her private places are and what would be a good reason to touch them. What should she do?

Other kids at the bus stop are bothering Fernando. He told his bus driver, but the kids are still bothering him. What should he do?

One of the boys in your class keeps grabbing and pulling your hair. What should you do?

Silva knows that it is wrong for her mom's boyfriend to touch her private places. He told her to keep it a secret. What should Silva do?

Juan has a friend online that he plays a game with. Lately this friend has been asking him weird questions that make him uncomfortable. What should he do?